Tim Male

We engaged Tim Male as our exclusive property advisor in December 2016 to assist with our nation-wide expansion of Cityfitness health clubs.

In that time, we have concluded some 15 lease deals for new locations with more in the pipeline. Tim's work in finding locations that meet our needs, working with our legal team and us to conclude these lease transactions has enabled us to focus on our day to day operations and for our facilities team to manage the fit out of the new clubs so that we open on time.

As such we are happy to endorse Tim and his team to deliver on our real estate needs and continued expansion.
